
Green Blasts Action; Pledges Full Support Of AFL Legal Staff

The union involved is Local 481 of Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators and Paperhangers with headquarters in Hartford. The union president

FL. President William Green rejected the indictment as a "legal directed against all labor" and ard it as an attack against elementary freedom and justice and also against the free press and free speech."

The legal department will "challenge these indictments and the constitutionality of the Taft-Hartley law" which they are based.

legally using union funds to pay a political advertisement in the London Times and to buy radio time for a political broadcast over Station WABC in New York.

were directed against the Presidential aspirations of Senator Robert Taft of Ohio, one of the authors of Taft-Hartley law, and the Comm-

The indictment returned against and Paperhangers, Local 481, and against its president, John R. Ien, at Hartford, Conn., will be to intensify the feeling of re-will regard it as an attack on elementary freedom and justice, and also against the

There is now presented to the public an exhibition of the purpose and meaning of the notorious Taft-

... Taft and Congressman Hart, authors of the bill, said would promote good will, cooperation and friendly relationship be-

Accomplished through criminal indictments and criminal prosecution of labor. Is there any one so naive as to believe that? Instead of serving to promote the cause of

He will challenge these indictments and the constitutionality of the Hartley act upon which the in-ers will rally to the support of fellow workers who are the victims of this criminal indictment. Our legal department will be as-

ERANS MOVED MORE DESPITE HOUSE CRISIS

Chicago.—Veterans are the "moving" people in the nation, according to the American Society of Plan-have moved at least once since war ended, the society says. Despite the housing shortage, some 11,000 Americans have found different slightly larger percentage of men were on the move compared with women. About 8.1 percent of the male population moved, compared with 7.5 percent of the female population.

million of the postwar migrants to find or take new jobs, according to the society. Another 2, 000 changed locations in search of on an occupational standpoint, national and semi-professional workers were the most mobile groups.

TILE WORKERS READY

PLANS FOR CONVENTION

Washington, D. C.—Members of the executive council of the A. F. L.—C. I. O. have planned for a convention to be held in New York City, N. Y., on September 10-11-12-13.

convention of the United Tex-

Over 400 delegates are expected to attend.

including William Green, presiof the American Federation of Cyrus Ching, Director of the David Morse, U. S. Under ary of Labor; George Meany, ary-treasurer of the American ation of Labor; Lee Cherna, ex-of America, and Joseph Ke-of Labor's League for Political tion.